The Honorable Earl Warren
Chairman
The President's Committee on the Assassination of President Kennedy
200 Maryland Avenue
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Chief Justice:

On May 11 a member of my staff telephoned the office of The President's Committee on the Assassination of President Kennedy with an inquiry concerning the employment of Mr. Norman Redlich, a legal consultant for the Committee. He was assured that an answer would be forthcoming promptly. As of this date, no answer has been received and I have received other inquiries, particularly in reference to the enclosed editorials which have appeared in the Commercial Appeal, Memphis, Tennessee.

In a letter from a constituent appears this statement: "I think it is imperative that the Warren Commission speak out about Mr. Redlich. They owe this to the country that had its President taken away in the prime of life."

I would appreciate an early reply on which I might base a letter to these constituents.

Sincerely yours,

Albert Gore
